Mission Statement

Through my work I aim to celebrate diversity through music, use music as a focus for group sharing, support environmental and personal well-being and support & develop musical confidence and ability.

Professional musician, ongoing work since 1979 including:

Workshop Facilitation - Solo and in groups: Community music sessions with all ages and abilities including: community choirs, singalongs accompanied by my guitar, vocal workshops, African drumming/junk percussion, children's musical interaction, movement, story-telling and reminiscence with elders.

Performance – Guitar and voice. Community and private events, solo and in groups.

Songwriting/Composing - Workshops, recording and broadcasting. Original material composed & performed. Videos screened.

Environment/Re-Use - Resource awareness through "Community Scrapbands" using junk percussion. "Beats recycling!!"

Project Work - A variety of music and re-use projects in partnership with schools and community groups.

Public speaking and journalism – contributing to publications, giving talks on my field.

Customers

I work musically with a variety of individuals, groups and organisations. For example in care homes, schools & play groups, hospitals, drug units, community centres, at private & community events & with faith, community & environmental groups, housing associations and voluntary sector agencies, entertainment agencies and bands, both in the UK and abroad. Some typical purchasers of my services are/have been:

- City Lit - Community Outreach Programme
- Croydon Community Choir / Creative Croydon
- Healthy Living Club in Lambeth
- Music in Hospitals and Care – for people in long-stay care
